

□

WESTERN MASSACHUSETTS SACRED HARP SINGING CONVENTION

March 11th and 12th, 2006
9:30 am to 3:30 pm
Northampton Center for the Arts

✠ Free ✠ No experience necessary ✠ Come and go as you please ✠

---

The Sacred Harp, continuously in print since 1844, is the backbone of one of this country's oldest, most vital, and soul-stirring musical traditions. You have to sing it to believe it!

Potluck dinner at 12:30 both days.

---

✠ INFORMATION ✠

Allison Schofield, Chair (518) 392-0229 chair@wmshc.org
Kelsey Wessels, Vice-Chair (413) 773-8208 vchair@wmshc.org
P.O. Box 633, Northampton, MA 01061-0633
info@wmshc.org <http://www.wmshc.org>

Transportation & Hotel Coordinator: Jenna Strizak (413) 773-8208
transportation@wmshc.org, hotel@wmshc.org,
Host Housing: Deborah Way (413) 320-3537 housing@wmshc.org
Food Coordinator: Lisa Palumbo (413) 585-9491 food@wmshc.org

The Western Massachusetts Sacred Harp Convention promotes community-based singing from The Sacred Harp through Sacred Harp Singing Schools, an Annual Convention, and other educational and outreach activities. The Convention has no institutional, religious or political affiliation, but it fosters the fellowship Sacred Harp singing engenders, and all who wish to participate are invited to lift their voices in song, regardless of musical training or ability.